DEATH OF MOTHER IMBODEN.

Called Away at the Age of 76 Years—A Peaceful Exit.

A Noble Christian Lady Ready and Waiting for the Final Summons—Funeral Next Monday.

As fall the leaves from autumn trees—
As fading seasons pass us by—
So, one by one, the loved depart,
And smiling leave us wiser than they die:

"To him the bright and peaceful way—
To don its robes of stainless white;

"From shadow into heavenly light:

"There is no death! The stars go down
To rise upon some fairer shore,
And bright in heaven's jeweled crown
They shine forever more."

Mrs. Sarah Imboden, beloved wife of John Imboden, sank into the sleep of death at the family home, 348 South Main street, at 8:30 o'clock this (Thursday) morning, in the 76th year of her age.

Mrs. Imboden, or Mother Imboden, as she was lovingly called by her family and friends in and out of the church, had been in poor health for a number of months, due to a drooping affliction. Despite her advanced age she bore her cross with Christian fortitude, and when at the last it was realized that the end was near, she was ready to go. Indeed, during the past few years she had remarked when she heard of young people dying, "Why am I spared—my days of usefulness are past; why should the aged and infirm remain and the youth be taken away?" The death of the noble Christian lady was calm and peaceful, like an infant falling asleep. Those who stood at the bedside scarcely realized the presence of the Death Angel.

The life of the deceased has been one of constant devotion to her family and the church of her choice, and all who knew her admired her for her kindness of heart, her constant sympathetic nature, and her beautiful Christian life. Her maiden name was Sarah Mark, and she was born in Lebanon county, Pennsylvania, August 7, 1818. She was converted at the early age of fifteen, 61 years ago, and was admitted to catechetical instruction and confirmation in the German Reformed denomination. She became the wife of John Imboden, Dec. 21, 1843, at Lebanon, Pa., and to the couple were born nine sons, three of whom died in infancy, the last one 35 years ago. The death of the wife and mother to-day breaks the family circle. The living sons are C. M. Imboden, of Decatur; Adam H. Imboden and Hiram Imboden, of Wichita, Kansas; David G. Imboden, of Galveston, Texas; John G. Imboden, of Decatur, and Rev. Frank W. Imboden, of Woodlawn, Ill. All of the sons and many of the grand-children were in Decatur on the 21st day of last December to attend the golden wedding anniversary of their parents, which occasion the deceased had looked forward to with many bright anticipations, and when the time came and she was spared to be present, she breathed a prayer of thankfulness, and said it was the happiest day of her life, as her children and their children gathered about in the house and at the festal board to celebrate the rare event. After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Imboden made their home for twelve years at Annville, Pa., and came to Decatur in November, 1855, at which time the deceased united with the First Methodist Episcopal church. No other member has been more faithful in her attendance upon the services, nor more active or generous in the participation of all work for good in the community. Every proper reform and every noble enterprise put forth by the people has had her earnest prayers and encouragement. She numbered her personal friends by the score, and the children loved to be with her and talk about her.

John Imboden, her devoted life companion, and the children of whom she was justly proud, are left to mourn her demise. They have realized for several months that her days were numbered, and they were in a measure prepared for the end. Nevertheless the blow is a severe one, and as they think of her form cold in death, there comes to them at times remembrances of her loving nature and motherly goodness which bring tears to the eyes and gloom to the heart.

She has gone to her reward and is waiting on the other shore in the realm of eternal peace for the coming of those she loved so well.

The funeral will not be held until next Monday afternoon, as it will not be possible for all of the relatives to arrive before Sunday. A sister of the deceased, Mrs. Elizabeth Goodman, and a brother, Cyrus Mark, reside at Lebanon, Pa., and her sons live in distant cities. The services will be held at the First M. E. church.

Attacked His Wife.
Wm. Bibby, a prominent druggist of Findlay, Shelby county, became violently insane Tuesday from strong drink and attacked his wife. It required the combined strength of six men to keep him from killing her.

A FINE RECORD.

Robert Taggart Makes a Clean Score at the Gun Club.

Landlord Robert Taggart, of the Central house, on yesterday demonstrated to the utmost satisfaction of his friends that besides being able to run a first class hotel, he was also able to make a remarkably fine record of breaking a straight of twenty-five black birds. It was at the regular shoot of the Decatur Gun club at East Park boulevards and none of the members were in it with Mr. Taggart who won both prizes, a $20 case of mounted birds and the club medal, valued at $50. The scores were as follows:

Charles Surface	20
Adam Balmer	17
James L. Peake	15
Robert Taggart	25
George Rupert	20
John Kitchen	18
Bert Hildebrandt	17
B. Mueller	18

A CHARITY SHOOT.

Mr. Taggart, after winning the case of mounted birds, announced that he would donate it for a prize shoot next week, the proceeds to go to the charity fund. This shoot will be held next Thursday and it is expected that the proceeds will amount to $25 or $30. The matter was left in the hands of Fred Mueller as chief promoter, and it is expected that there will be a big crowd of marksmen present. Every man who can cook a gun is expected to toe the mark and shoot at the black birds even if he does have to close his eyes when he pulls the trigger.

Manuel is a Man of Wealth. In the REPUBLICAN of last evening mention was made of the marriage of Mr. Louis Manuel and Miss Lizzie Williams. Mr. Manuel is the popular chef at the St. Nicholas hotel, and is of Spanish parentage. He was born at Florence, Italy, and near the town Luces in Italy he is the owner of 800 acres of olive, wine and woodland, the title to which is at present tied up in the courts, but in a few months Mr. Manuel hopes to gain possession. The land is worth several hundred thousand dollars, and as Mr. Manuel recently gained possession of all papers of importance, there is little or no doubt but that he will in the end enjoy a life of luxury in Spain or Italy. Mr. Manuel says he came to Decatur last December to do his best for the St. Nicholas and Landlord Lux. He is confessedly the best chef the hotel has had, and all of the guests praise his skill. Mr. and Mrs. Manuel have apartments at the Globe hotel, and for the present will forego the pleasures of a bridal tour.

Agreeably Surprised.
F. H. Wilcox, the genial restaurant keeper, was agreeably, yet completely, surprised last night. The occasion was the fortieth anniversary of his birth. Without any previous notice, and without any visible suspicious circumstances, about 60 of his warm, personal friends, both men and women, arranged to surprise Mr. Wilcox on the occasion above named, and the first intimation he had of their intention was when he was ushered into their midst at about 8 o'clock last night. They presented him with a magnificent rocking chair, upholstered in costly plush, a beauty, worth $25. After the surprise and presentation, the friends spread a feast of oysters and ice cream which everybody enjoyed. In addition to this, there was a string band which furnished entertainment music during the evening. To say that Mr. Wilcox and his family appreciated this expression of esteem is to put it in the mildest form.

DAILY REPUBLICAN

R. H. HAMSHER & W. F. CALHOUN.
HAMSHER & CALHOUN, PROP'TRS
DECATUR, ILLINOIS.

Entered at the Post Office as Decatur, Illinois
Second class mail matter.

THURSDAY EVE., MARCH 1, 1894

GRAND MASTER WORKMAN SOVEREIGN declares that there 3,000,000 people in want for the lack of work. If Sovereign's advice is followed by those he professes to lead, it won't be long until that number will be doubled and perhaps quadrupled. Sovereign wants absolute free trade.

The business interests and the labor interests and the farming interests would all save money, if they were to contribute two billion dollars a year in solid cash for what was less than eighteen months ago, derisively characterized by mounteckers and Democratic campaigners as "McKinleyism."

CHIEF ENGINEER P. M. ARTHUR pays taxes in Cleveland, O., on $85,000 worth of property and the Knights of Labor of Iowa under the inspiration of Mr. Sovereign propose to investigate Mr. Arthur's private affairs. Arthur has all along as a leader shown that he possesses good sense, which is more than can be said for the belligerent Sovereign.

This country has learned by sad experience that "McKinleyism" was worth more to labor and general prosperity, in thirty days, than the entire job lot of special legislation, such as anti-trust-store laws, anti-prison-labor laws, weekly pay laws, etc., by which demagogues sought to deceive laboringmen into the belief that they were their friends, would be worth to labor in ten years.

The dishonesty of the Democratic press is in no manner so well illustrated as in the claim that under the Wilson bill the country will speedily be restored to prosperity, for in the first place no living man knows what the Wilson bill will do when it becomes a law. It may not have any resemblance to the Wilson bill; in fact it is safe to say that the present bill will not be enacted.

HAVING tried a change the working-men have now an opportunity to decide which party, the Republican or Democratic, is the true friend of the working-men and the business prosperity of the country. It is not necessary to wait any longer to see "how it is going to turn out." If the shadow of a system in a few short months will change conditions from the heights of prosperity, the country was enjoying in 1892, to general prostration, there is no hope that the substance will restore the country to where the Democratic party found it.

WHEN the foreign affairs committee concluded that "when a crown falls in any kingdom of the Western hemisphere it is paralyzed; and when a scepter departs it departs forever; and American opinion can not sustain any American ruler in the attempt to restore them, no matter how virtuous and sincere the reasons may be that seem to justify him," it thrust a righteous sword through the heart of Cleveland's infamous conspiracy to restore the corrupt Queen Liliuokalani that was a sufficient condemnation for the entire gang of mutton-headed diplomats that characterizes the present administration's policy in the Hawaiian fiasco. Cleveland, Graham, Blount and Willis have all tried to restore a crown and a scepter in the Western hemisphere.

If Judge Long keeps on he will soon have taught Penitentiary Commissioner Loehren what his duties are. Some time ago, after the court decided that the commissioner could not lawfully suspend Judge Long's pension, without giving the pensioner a right to be heard in defense, the commissioner ordered Long to appear before a board of medical examiners within 30 days from the date of the order, under penalty of having his pension suspended if he disobeyed the order. Upon receiving the order Judge Long applied to the supreme court of the District of Columbia for an injunction restraining Commissioner Loehren from carrying out this order. Yesterday the court granted the injunction asked for by Judge Long enjoining the commissioner from either suspending or reducing the pension.

A HAIR-BRAINED congressman, who favors the coinage of the sovereign, shouted to an opposition member the other day: "Are you opposed to giving the people more money?" and thought he was putting a very perplexing question to him. All such congressmen are a curse to the country, for the simple reason that they are too ignorant to be trusted in matters of important legislation. There is more money now than the business of the country demands, and if the entire District of Columbia were one solid vault full of money, and business did not demand its use, it would be no better than the garbage that is dumped into the Potomac; and if every school section in the country was covered with money, and the people had nothing to exchange for it, they could not get it. No country on earth was ever made prosperous by coining or issuing more money than the business of the country demands.

Liberty's Torch Light.

The country not long since was notified of the fact that the American flag has ceased to float over the White House, for the reason that the last one is worn out, and the present administration does not want to spend the money necessary to buy a new one. Another, and similar streak of economy has come to light, this time in relation to the expense of keeping the torch lighted in the hand of the statue of "Liberty Enlightening the World," on Bedloe Island, N. Y., the gift of the French Republic to our people. The expense of keeping this light burning is $10,000 a year, and it is proposed in the interest of economy to discontinue it. The sons of the American Revolution propose, however, that the light shall not go out, and if necessary, they will themselves furnish the money to keep it burning. Now if the Daughters of the American Revolution will go down in their pockets and pay for a flag for the White House they may preserve the respect of the nation until Grover Cleveland gets through drawing his breath.

CLOSE ON SUNDAY.

There has been an effort among our leading citizens, as well as among some of our clothing merchants, to have their respective places of business close on Sunday, but without success.

I have deemed it for the good of our community that all should be closed, and I hereby pledge myself, from and after Feb. 28, 1894, to close my place of business at 11 o'clock Saturday night until Monday morning, whether any one joins me in this move or not.

However, I shall ask all who wish to join me in this, to call at The Republican Office and place their names under the above. Respectfully,

ANOTHER OUTRAGE CASE.

Court Takes a Recess Until Friday Forenoon.

The case of the People vs. Tom Godfrey and Elmer Hill, which has been on trial in the circuit court for two days, was given to the jury last evening, and since then the juries have been locked up trying to agree upon a verdict as to the guilt or innocence of the young men who were indicted for making a criminal assault upon Nellie Johnson at a bawdy house. It is not known how the jury stands, but there is said to be little probability of an agreement.

LATER—This afternoon the jury came in with a verdict of not guilty.

This forenoon the case of the People vs. Edward Dugan, a stranger, indicted for having made an attempt to criminally assault Maria Clark, a colored woman of St. Louis, in a Wabash train near Bloody, was called up for trial, with the defendant and the prosecuting witness present. State's Attorney Mills appears for the people and C. C. Lefevre and David Hutchinson for the defendant, whose sister is also in attendance at the trial. The juries selected to hear the evidence and return a verdict are the following gentlemen: Frank Gregory, John Bradshaw, R. Newman, Charles Morris, Joseph Kreig, J. E. Davis, L. P. Barnes, James Thorp, Thomas Day, W. H. H. Slaughter, Frank Bloom and W. A. Bradley.

The attorneys made the opening statements before the noon hour, when Judge Vail adjourned court until Friday morning, in order that time may be had in which to secure a man stenographer to take down the evidence. Miss Vail is the court reporter, but she will not report this case. A man will be secured to do the work.

All the men live in Frackville and are well-known miners. Since 3 o'clock this afternoon the rescuing party has been at work clearing away the debris in the gangway, and they hope to reach the men to-night. A crowd of anxious women and children are congregated around the shafts' mouth awaiting the result of the rescuing party's quest.

All the men live in Frackville and are well-known miners. Since 3 o'clock this afternoon the rescuing party has been at work clearing away the debris in the gangway, and they hope to reach the men to-night. Whether they will be alive, or only their dead bodies will be found, can but be surmised. Yet it is hoped that the men still live. A crowd of anxious women and children are congregated around the shafts' mouth awaiting the result of the rescuing party's quest.

PERSONAL MENTION.

COL. GEORGE B. McCLELLAN, son of
Gen. McClellan, recently entertained
New York newspaper men at dinner in his New York home.

J. R. SOVEREIGN, Powderly's successor, was at one time a stone cutter.
He was appointed labor commissioner
in Iowa by Gov. Boies.

COMMANDER IN CHIEF ADAMS, of the G. A. R., has so far recovered from a serious illness as to resume his duties
as sergeant-at-arms of the Massachusetts
state house.

MATTHEW BOLLES, the oldest member of the Boston stock exchange, is now eighty-six years old. He is still active in business and takes a lively interest in all the affairs of the exchange.

SENATOR PERKINS, of California, has a habit of asking every second or third man he meets for the time of day and immediately setting his own watch according to the information given him.

A DISPATCH from Newport states that
Mrs. Grossman, daughter of the late Edwin Booth, as a memorial to her father will place a mural tablet in Berkeley Memorial chapel, Middleton, which stands close by Booth's.

Mrs. EUNICE CONRAD is perhaps the oldest person in West Virginia. She resides in Braxton county and talks in a most entertaining manner about the early settlement of that part of the country. Mrs. Conrad is one hundred and sixteen years old, and, although feeble, still retains her mental faculties.

THE STUDY.

MISS HARRYDELL HALLMARK is a Georgia young woman who is said to be doing good literary work in the east.

PROF. GORDON SMITH intends to leave for England in a few days to spend the winter. He will return to Canada and devote the rest of his life
to literary work long postponed.

MR. GLADSTONE has just written an article for the Youth's Companion, the Boston weekly for boys and girls,
which contains four thousand words,
every word in own handwriting.

W. D. HOWELLS is said to have enough literary work mapped out and contracted for for the next year to assure him, with the royalties on his published books, an income of thirty thousand dollars.

JULES VERNE, the famous author, is said to have earned more money by his pen than any other living author.
He has taken up his abode in plain apartments in the old cathedral town of Amiens.

WILL ALLEN DRUMGOOLE, who has been for eight years clerk of the Tennessee senate, recently lost his job because he would write dialect stories which "riled" the mountaineers

THE DAY'S PROGRESS.

A LIVERPOOL hotel has put in some penny-in-the-slot gas fires. This system is applied to the gas supply, so that a fire in the grate can be turned on when needed.

A PROCESS for the production of a new material called "lactite," or
"milk ivory," has been invented, skim milk being the substance from which it is made.

The French are making barrels from paper pulp and the Germans are making stockings of it which keep the feet warm and dry. Probably they do not wash, but should be burned after use.

Over fifty kinds of bark are now
used in the manufacture of paper.
Even banana skins, pea vines, coconut
fiber, hay, straw, water weeds,
leaves, shavings, corn husks and hop
plants are used for the same purpose.

An instrument has been invented for soundings the depth of the sea without using a lead line. A sinker is dropped containing a cartridge which explodes on touching the bottom. The report is registered in a microphone apparatus and the depth reckoned by the time at which the explosion occurred.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES.

ALABAMA has nearly fifty Baptist Young People's unions.

The German Epworth league now comprises 301 chapters, with an aggregate of 10,848 members.

It is thought that no less than $100,- 000 has reached the treasuries of the missionary societies this year from the Christian Endeavor societies in the churches.

An English paper reports a Christian Endeavor cycling club, whose object is to promote open-air mission work in villages. This is a "wheel within a wheel" to good purpose.

RECENTLY a large party of Australian Endeavorers traveled about fifty miles to assist in holding a week's evangelistic services. Their earnest efforts were crowned with much success.

By the use of the two-cents-a-week
pledge plan, the Second Presbyterian Christian Endeavor society of Nashville, Tenn., has lately handed over to the Presbyterian board of foreign missions the sum of $48.50, of which $10
came from the juniors.

the Arctic explorer, has presented her late husband's collection of Arctic and other curiosities to the University of Edinburgh.

The second medalist of the Royal Geographical Society this year (M. S. L.)

was Mr. Woodland Rockhill, an American diplomat who had made himself famous by his explorations in western China and northeastern Thibet.

MR. DEPEW's European run is to be one of four or five weeks. He will go directly to Paris, thence to Rome and Naples, and after a short time spent along the Italian Riviera, he will proceed to London, and thence home. He will be accompanied only by one of his secretaries.

COR. GILDER, the brother of Richard Watson Gilder, the poet, has been

WRECKED BY A BOMB.

The Work of an Unknown Miscreant in Pittsburgh.

A PROMINENT RESIDENCE WRECKED

And Many Lives Imperiled—Narrow Escape of the Occupants of the Ruined House—The Police at Work Without a Clue.

LANCASTER, Pa., Feb. 28.—This city was thrown into a terrible state of excitement shortly before midnight by the explosion of a dynamite bomb in the heart of the city, wrecking a prominent residence and imperiling many lives. About 11:30 Luther Hassler, connected with the revenue officer, was on his way home, on North Lime street, and when approaching the corner of Grant street he saw a man standing at the gas light. Suddenly the light was extinguished, and, in a moment, Hassler saw the man cross the street to the handsome residence of Dr. J. E. Baker, a prominent physician. The man lighted a match and then walked down Grant street. In a moment there was a deafening roar which rocked the houses in the vicinity and almost knocked Hassler off his feet.

Investigation showed that the unknown miscreant had placed a dynamite bomb on the porch of the Baker residence and set it off. The Baker house was terribly shattered by the explosion, and the family who were in it had a narrow escape from fatal injury, the force of the explosion being sufficient to hurl them from their beds.

The neighborhood, which is a fine residence section, Attorney-General Hensel, living close by, was aroused by the explosion. The belief at first was that it was an earthquake. A piece of the bomb, however, was found a square away, having struck the house of D. Frank Mullenburg, on Orange street. It was made out of gas pipe, and was similar in construction to bombs found in Paris within the past few weeks. Mr. Hassler was the only person who saw the miscreant, and he was struck by a piece of the missile which inflicted a painful wound in his leg. The police are scouring the city to-night, but with little to work on and no clew to the miscreant.

This is the third attempt at bombing within four weeks, all taking place in the heart of the city. Just a week ago the Pennsylvania railroad bridge at Cherry street was badly damaged by a similar explosion, and several weeks previous a bomb was placed against a warehouse adjoining the police station, but it failed to go off. The damage to the Baker residence will be heavy, but no estimate can be given to-night.

A Peril of Disaster to the Gloucester Fisheries.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., March 1.—The past three months form one of the most disastrous periods in the history of the Gloucester fisheries, and one which surpasses any previous record for the same length of time. The number of vessels reported lost is eighteen, with a total tonnage of 4,110 and valuation of over $100,000, on which there was an insurance of $90,181. The last vessel to be added to the list is the schooner Henrietta, which sailed from here early in December, on a hand-line fishing voyage.

She was commanded by Dominique Pinella, a native of Corsica, who had with him a crew of twelve men whose names the owner of the Henrietta have not yet given for publication. The loss of this crew makes a total loss of life in all branches of the fisheries of sixty-one men, several of whom leave families in this city or in the maritime provinces.

Mr. Gladstone's Retirement and the Home Rule Movement.

LONDON, March 1.—That Mr. Gladstone's eyesight has grown so much worse that an operation will soon be necessary, almost everybody believes, and it is understood that he informed his colleagues that for this reason he would be compelled to retire, though he hoped his retirement would only be temporary. The liberal papers insist that in the event of his retirement home rule will survive, but the conservative papers take the opposite view.

The Times declares that home rule will be dropped, no matter who may become the liberal leader; and expresses the belief that neither Lord Rosebery nor Sir William Harcourt will be likely to take the matter up.

Several Children Injured in a Panic Caused by Fire.

CINCINNATI, March 1.—Fire yesterday morning in the school house which adjoins St. Henry's German Catholic church, on Flint street, caused a panic among the children who were in church saying mass, as is their custom, before entering upon their studies for the day. It is miraculous that none were killed. Several were injured, Lena Schmidt, 9 years old, being the most unfortunate, but her injuries are not fatal. The loss to the school house will amount to $8,000.

The Tariff Bill Sent Back to the Committee for Amendment.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—After spending the better part of three days in a caucus on the tariff bill, the democratic senators yesterday afternoon sent the bill back to the finance committee with expressed, but strongly implied, instructions to amend it according to the consensus of opinion as expressed during the discussion.

ARROYO, N. Y., March 1.—Alonzo Phillips was fatally shot last night while a member of a charivari party, he and his friend Duncan Parker and North Astoria, New York, died

THE KEARSARGE INQUIRY.

The Disaster Due to a Defect in the Hydrographic Chart.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., March 1.—At the opening of the Kearsarge court of inquiry, yesterday, the testimony of Admiral Stanton and Commander Heyer, given Tuesday, was read by Judge-Advocate Kelly. When the reading had been finished, Commander Heyer was recalled and asked what had become of the cipher code that had been on the Kearsarge. He said he had expressed it to the navy department at Washington Tuesday. In a chart of Roncador reef, which had been corrected up to 1893, were two surveys—one of twenty fathoms, the other of 100 fathoms. Commander Heyer was asked if he could not have taken soundings in the 100-fathom curve and learned that he was close to the reef.

"I could not."

"Why not?" asked Admiral Gherardi.

"I was half a mile from the reef and running at the rate of eight knots an hour. In less than four minutes I would have been on the reef, and I could not get the sounding machine down and up again before striking the reef."

Then Lieut.-Com. Charles Huntington Lyman was called. He said he had been in the service between twenty-seven and twenty-eight years. Lieut. Lyman said that prior to the time of striking the reef he had no reason to doubt the accuracy of the maps that were furnished the Kearsarge by the hydrographic office.

"Thirty minutes before we struck," went on the witness, "I took an observation. That observation I worked out subsequently after we had landed on the reef. I found that Roncador reef was three to five miles west of the position which it occupied on the chart. Some other officers also worked it up and found the reef to be to the westward of its position on the chart."

Lieut. Lyman said that the survey of the Roncador reef had been made in 1853, and had not been surveyed since. The determination of longitude was not then such an accurate process as it is to-day.

A Receiver Appointed for the Evansville & Richmond Railroad Co.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., March 1.—Col. James Montgomery, of this city, has been appointed receiver for the Evansville & Richmond railroad on complaint of the Evansville Terre Haute Railroad Co., in the Martin county court. The plaintiff cites that defendant has a mortgage debt of $1,400,000; that defendant has no rolling stock to operate the road; that engines and cars have been furnished by plaintiff; that defendant has never earned enough to pay interest on its bonds, amounting to $100,000 per annum; that the defendant has no basis of credit, and is not able to borrow money; that the plaintiff refuses in future to furnish defendant with cars and engines; that defendant owes plaintiff a judgment of $120,600, rendered February 26, 1894, which is returned endorsed, "No property from which to make it," that the only hope for plaintiff is to appoint a receiver. It is further cited that Tyre Henderson holds a judgment for $5,000 against defendant and Stewart Barnes one for a like amount. On judgments rendered and liable to be rendered there is imminent danger of moneys in hands of agents being seized, and nothing left for operating expenses.

The court, after hearing the petition, appointed the receiver as above. He is a very capable railroad man.

Duestrow, the Wife and Child Murderer, Again Attempts Suicide.

ST. LOUIS, March 1.—Dr. Arthur Duestrow, the slayer of his wife and little son, attempted to commit suicide at midnight in his cell in jail by hanging himself to the iron bars in the rear. He was cut down by Guards Dennis Daley and Barney Ruhr, none the worse, apparently, for his experience.

The court, after hearing the petition, appointed the receiver as above. He is a very capable railroad man.

THE WAGES OF SIN.

The Scriptural Declaration Again Verified in a Tragic Manner.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 1.—Louisa Kellogg (Mrs. E. W. Rothwell), wife of the president of the California baseball league, a member of the Alvin Joslyn theatrical company, was shot and fatally wounded at the Eiffel hotel at 8:30 last night by Pete McNabb, with whom she had sustained illicit relations which she was trying to break off.

Dairy Cows Suffering from Tuberculosis.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 1.—An inspection of a herd of sixty cows was made by state surgeons Tuesday at a dairy a short distance out of Avon, Livingston county, and was witnessed by Dr. Hinckley, chief United States veterinary inspector for western New York, and Dr. Thornbush. Nine of the herd were found to be suffering from tuberculosis and were condemned to be killed.

After Duestrow was cut down, he turned on Guard Ruhr and attempted to take his revolver away, with the intention, probably, of killing the guard and then himself. He was, however, quickly overpowered.

Sudden Death of a Banker.

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 1.—Col. W. W. Jennings, president of the First national bank and also of the Commonwealth Guarantee Trust and Safe Deposit Co., died about noon yesterday. He was brought home sick Tuesday night from Philadelphia, where he had gone on business. Heart disease was the cause.

It was his second attempt, the first having been made just after he shot his wife and child, when he turned the revolver on himself, but succeeded in inflicting only a flesh wound.

After Duestrow was cut down, he turned on Guard Ruhr and attempted to take his revolver away, with the intention, probably, of killing the guard and then himself. He was, however, quickly overpowered.

THE DAY IN CONGRESS

Senator Mills' Position on the Finance Committee.

MR. FRYE ON THE HAWAIIAN QUESTION.

Further Filibustering in the House on Mr. Bland's Silver Seigniorage Commerce Bill Causes the Practical Loss of Another Legislative Day.

Senate

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The open session of the senate to day lasted for two hours, the executive session occupied nearly half an hour and then came an adjournment till to morrow.

The only item of any interest in the morning hour was a proposition on the part of the chairman of the finance committee—Mr. Voorhees—to legitimate Mr. Mills' rather anomalous position on that committee which he has held as a substitute for Senator McPherson who is himself, and has been for some weeks an active member of that committee. Mr. Voorhees now proposes that Mr. Mills remain on the subcommittee of Senator Vance of North Carolina, who is absent from the city on account of sickness. But Mr. Moor objected to the immediate consideration of the resolution and so it went over till to morrow.

The expected speech of Senator Frye on the Hawaiian question, was begun to day, and will be concluded to morrow. He characterized the Hawaiian matter in our diplomatic relations as most abominable to the administration and intensely humiliating to the people and denounced the administration of Minister Willis as cheating, false pretences and lying.

In the course of his remarks Mr. Frye spoke into a passionate outburst of eloquence.

"I think of it," he said, "a wicked queen, with barbarian instincts, blindly slumbering on her throne. A government representing progress, enterprise and Christian civilization, springs into existence is recognized by all the great powers by our minister, by Presidents Harrison and Cleveland, and by a commissioner and two ministers, one of them welcoming into the same family of nations, while the other had in his pocket instructions to do the same. A government which he was an effective tool in coming. Are we proud of that? Think of it! A president of sixty five million of people having a minister contriving and scheming assiduously working night and day to restore a rotten monarchy, interviewing again and again a self dethroned queen listening to talk from her so barbarous and savage that the president did not dare to send it to congress and to the people."

House

The senate joint resolution providing for the appointment of United States commissioners to the Antwerp exposition was read and referred.

Mr. Bland moved that the house go into committee of the whole upon the neighbor bill and that general debate be close at 3 o'clock Thursday. On this motion the vote by division was 127 to 2.

Mr. Tracy made the point of no quorum and the yeas and nays were called. In the midst of the roll call, just after the clerk had called Mr. Bingham (Pa.) Mr. Johnson (Dem., 1) rose to a point of order. He said the rules require that when a member's name is called he shall vote. He made the point against the gentleman whose name had just been called that he had not risen to speak.

The Chair.—The rules forbid the roll call from being interrupted.

Mr. Johnson.—But this relates to the roll call.

The Chair.—Nevertheless the call can not be interrupted.

Mr. Johnson.—Very well, I will reserve the point.

Further along in the proceedings Mr. Bland renewed his motion and the yeas and nays were called. As the roll call proceeded it became apparent to many that a quorum would be obtained and the speaker kept tally marks above the electrol desk and the chair.

Mr. Outhwaite and Mr. Tracy were on their feet demanding recognition of the former to present an order from the committee on rules limiting debate on the pending bill and amendments to two hours, and the latter to move a reconsideration of the vote just taken. Mr. Outhwaite was given the floor, and the speaker stated after putting the question, that Mr. Tracy had interposed a motion to reconsider.

The announcement of the vote by the speaker—17 yeas to 7 nays—evoked round of hearty applause from the democrats and popu lists.

Mr. Outhwaite and Mr. Tracy were on their feet demanding recognition of the former to present an order from the committee on rules limiting debate on the pending bill and amendments to two hours, and the latter to move a reconsideration of the vote just taken. Mr. Outhwaite was given the floor, and the speaker stated after putting the question, that Mr. Tracy had interposed a motion to reconsider.

Mr. Outhwaite demanded the previous question on his motion, but the yeas and nays were ordered without a division. A name or two had been called, when Mr. Reed precipitated an angry discussion which, for a moment, took the form of a scene of the fifth act of Richard III, when Spurway, the King's counsellor, told the King—What is the King? The gentleman from Maine suggested that a roll call was out of order, insomuch as the last vote did not disclose the presence of a quorum.

The Speaker.—What authority does the gentleman make that statement?

Mr. Reed—I am informed by the gentleman from New York (Mr. Tracy) that he kept a tally and that it did not show a voting quorum.

The Speaker.—The gentleman from New York is not the keeper of the roll for the house. [Applause.] The clerk will proceed with the call.

Mr. Reed persisting amid cries of "regular order" stated that when a member arose and suggested that an error had been committed, he was entitled to respect treatment from the chair and from the house.

The Speaker.—Has not the gentleman reddit?

There has been no suggestion that the vote had been tampered with. It was made for the benefit of the house. If it were made, the chair will be asked to examine it in the interests of right and truth.

While this colloquy was proceeding, members rushed down the aisles to the center, and Mr. Outhwaite and Mr. McMillin asserted that Mr. Tracy had accepted the validity and correctness of the vote by moving to reconsider it. His remedy was to have the vote recalled, and this he had failed to do.

The confusion became so great, members shouting at each other and the chair, that the speaker suspended proceedings until committee of the whole was restored by members taking their seats.

Mr. Tracy endeavored to make himself heard and finally succeeded. He said that it was a matter of but little moment. A quorum would be secured, in any event, he conceded. But he had kept what he believed to be a correct tally and it showed but 175 votes. But he would not undertake to impeach the accuracy of the official count.

Then the storm subsided.

Mr. Outhwaite demanded for the previous question was seconded—170 to 10—and the friends of the pending bill expressed their pleasure at the result by vigorous handclapping.

On the passage of the order on a division, tell three short of a quorum, and the house adjourned.

Will be British Cable.

He said also that he had no doubt that the United States would follow the example of Canada in admitting Australian wool free of duty.

WELL, TRY IT.

If you cannot read this print distinctly by lamp or daylight in the evening, at a distance of 15 feet, your eyes are failing, no matter what your age and your eyes need help. They should be improved and preserved if properly corrected. It is a wise investment. There is no danger of seeing worse as long as the print is not magnified. It should look natural size, but just a trifle larger than it did, and save your eyes today.

LESSMAN AND THAT LETTER.

Serious Contention in the Lutheran Church—Meeting To-Night.

Some days ago Rev. J. W. Lessman, the pastor of the St. Johannes Lutheran church, located in the Fifth ward, re ceived what is known as a "White Cap" letter, which it is alleged warned the clergyman to leave the city. He does not deny that he received the threatening letter. He made the fact public last Sunday in his church, and caused some commotion among his people, one of whom arose in the congregation and charged the pastor with having written the letter.
The accused promptly denied the charge and the congregation adjourned to the street, where a large crowd gathered.
The pastor was then called back and denounced as a heretic.

Rev. Lessman is not disposed to give any good reason why any man should write him a threatening letter, and he dislikes any publicity in connection with the affair, but people will talk, and all sorts of stories are afloat among the people in the Fifth ward.

One version of the trouble is this:
There is a parochial school in the base ment of the church. The pupils are the children of the members of the church.
Some time ago it was arranged that Rev.
Lessman should not only preach for the people, but also teach the school, he agreeing to receive $10 a month extra for his services as schoolmaster. This plan of work for the clergymen was ob served for a time, when suddenly a Luther an student was brought here from Springfield to take charge of the school at $40 a month, the change being made without general consent, thus imposing an extra assessment upon the patrons of the school. Thus extra tax was something the people were not able to stand, particularly in these hard times, when work is scarce and there are frequent cuts in wages. Some of the parents, within the last two months, being unable to pay the extra tax, have withdrawn their children from the parochial school, have sent them to the H. B. Durfee public school, which is equally as convenient to their homes as the parochial school. Fully a dozen pupils have recently been taken in at the public school. They were not particularly bright when they entered, but they are coming out rapidly, and it is learned that their parents are highly gratified with the change, to say nothing of getting out of contributing extra money to pay the Springfield student's salary of $40 a month. The Polacks and other Lutherans whose children have given the free public school a trial are well satisfied with the change, and possibly other patrons of the parochial school will desert it and get out of paying the objectionable assessments. If the ex -penses continue the student ought to be willing to work for $10 a month, as it is said he will have but few pupils to engage his time and attention.

And then, it is alleged, there is a big slice of politics in the church trouble, growing out of promises made in the memorable campaign of 1892. Rev. Less man is a Democrat and he was quite active in the campaign. His people, with but few exceptions, voted the straight Democratic ticket and listened to the appeals to their prejudices against the public school system and other points calculated to induce them to vote for Cleveland and Altgeld. One disgruntled Lutheran has said that his people were assured if they would only vote
the Democratic ticket, times would be good and there would be an abundance of work at increased wages. There was truth in this, and ever since the hard times set in certain members of Pastor Lessman's flock have been feeling blue. Some of them are out of work, others have had their wages reduced, and now there is no early prospect of relief satisfactory to them. They are naturally disheartened with the situation, and a factor has grown up in the church.

There will be a meeting at the church to-night, when it is expected it will be decided whether or not Rev. Lessman shall remain as pastor.

TROUBLE in the Parochial School,
A warrant was sworn out this afternoon in Justice Hammer's court for the arrest of Herman Abel, the teacher at the St. Johannes Parochial school, charged with whipping a scholar. August Sabolowski is the father of the boy, and this is the second time, the father says, that the boy has been shamefully beaten
by his instructor. His method is to lay the boy on a bench and whip him with a strap, and as a result of the last chastisement, the boy's back is covered with black and blue marks. The hearing is set for 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon in Squire Hammer's court. Officer Miller served the warrant.
